Professional practice

Professor Barbier brings a depth of expertise and extensive practice as counsel, arbitrator and consultant in cross-jurisdictional commercial and investment disputes spanning the globe including Europe, Africa, South America, the Baltics and Central Asia. He regularly acts as counsel, legal expert, and arbitrator in international commercial and investment arbitrations (ICC, LCIA, SCC, HKIAC, and SIAC).

Professor Barbier is a Professor of Law (professeur agrégé des facultés de droit) in France and is widely published. Among his various publications, Professor Barbier is a co-author, together with ICC Secretary-General Alexander Fessas, of the annual commentary on ICC awards published in the Journal du Droit International (Clunet). His most recent works concentrate on investment arbitration.

In addition to his expertise in arbitration, Professor Barbier specializes in contract law. He is the co-author, along with Professor Jacques Ghestin, of the "Treatise on Civil Law - General Introduction," which is published in two volumes (volume 1 in 2018 and volume 2 in 2020). Since 2013, he has also authored the quarterly commentary on court decisions related to contract law in the Revue Trimestrielle de Droit Civil.
