Leading International Arbitration Practitioner Cameron Sim to join Peter & Kim partnership

Peter & Kim is pleased to announce the appointment of a new partner, welcoming Cameron Sim to the partnership, effective 5 May 2025. Cameron will be resident in the Sydney office and a key contact in the Singapore office.

Cameron brings extensive global experience as counsel for corporates and States in commercial and investment arbitrations across a range of industries, including banking and finance, energy, insurance, pharmaceuticals, private equity, retail, and telecommunications. Having spent his career variously based in London and Hong Kong, Cameron is well-placed to serve the firm's clients particularly those bridging Europe and the Asia-Pacific region.

Cameron is admitted in Australia, England & Wales, Hong Kong, and New York, and is a Registered Foreign Lawyer in the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC). He has acted in arbitrations under all leading arbitration rules in key arbitral seats. He sits as arbitrator and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is also a member of the Proceedings Committee of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC).

Cameron is ranked in leading directories and has received accolades as a "superb arbitration lawyer", "truly formidable", and "a stand-out star", who "combines outstanding technical ability with being commercially savvy", with "intellectual prowess combined with a strategic mindset which make him an asset to any matter" (Legal 500 Asia-Pacific (2023 — 2025)). He has also been described as "a superb and unrelenting advocate" and "a force to be reckoned with", with "outstanding skills of coordination, especially in cross-border matters", and "excellent academic background and intuition" (Who's Who Legal (2022 — 2025)).

Cameron's academic publications have been cited with approval by both courts and commentators. He is the author of Emergency Arbitration (Oxford University Press 2021), the first-ever treatise on the procedure. Cameron has first class degrees in law from the University of Melbourne (BA/LLB), and the University of Oxford (BCL), where he pursued his Masters study as an Allan Myers scholar. Subsequently, he clerked for the President of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom and in the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

Cameron said of his appointment: "The Asia-Pacific region is playing an increasingly significant role in international arbitration, which has become a highly specialised area. I am delighted to join Peter & Kim as I reposition myself within the region to reflect the evolving dispute resolution landscape. I look forward to working closely with the Sydney and Singapore teams, and collaborating with the broader global team, to continue the firm's rapid growth and success".

James Morrison, Partner based in Sydney, said: "Peter & Kim is extremely excited and fortunate to have Cameron joining our team. He is an international arbitration polymath; a quad-qualified lawyer who has worked in major law firms around the world on some of the most complex cases, and is a leading expert on emergency arbitration. We are looking forward to working with Cameron to show clients, particularly in Australia, that Peter & Kim is the market leader in specialised international arbitration services and can provide a value proposition with the deepest talent to advocate their cases forcefully. Cameron's move aligns closely with Peter & Kim's considered growth strategy and other exciting developments in Australia that we will announce soon".

Kevin Kim, Partner based in Seoul agreed and noted: "We warmly welcome Cameron to the Peter & Kim partnership and our globally integrated team. His expertise and experience will enhance our offering within Australia, Asia and more broadly, in-line with the firm's objective of ensuring that our impact matters and that we offer the highest quality of legal expertise to our clients. Cameron is a true arbitration specialist and expert advocate, and we are thrilled to have him bring his valuable skill-set to client work".
